Access New Business Magazines Online – for Free!

E-magazines are free to download and read with your Toronto Public Library card. You can access more than 300 popular digital magazine titles including many geared to running your small business. Issues can be downloaded to your home computer, tablet or smart phone for offline viewing. There is no limit to how many magazines you check out. Keep them for as long as you wish. There is nothing to return and no fines to keep track of.

FEATURED PROGRAMS

October is Small Business Month at the library, but we also have small business programs, resources and services for you throughout the year. Whether you're just starting your own business or want to build an already existing one, the following are just a few of the programs and resources we offer. Visit tpl.ca/smallbusiness for more information.

ENTREPRENEUR IN RESIDENCE

Meet the library's new Entrepreneur in Residence Mike Brcic. Get help from a successful entrepreneur well connected to Toronto's business community, page 60.

BUSINESS INC.

An eight-week business program offered in partnership with the City of Toronto and the Toronto Business Development Centre, page 61.

Plus more workshops, lectures and great programs at your branch. See pages 58-61.

Come in for help at our Business Information Desks at North York Central Library 416-395-5613 and Toronto Reference Library 416-393-7149.

Or connect with more than 100 online business journals and articles.

Visit torontopubliclibrary.ca/smallbusiness and click on Business Databases.

BUILDING YOUR SMALL BUSINESS AT THE LIBRARY

The library offers free or low-cost small business programming and lectures at branches around the city on a wide variety of topics. We partner with all levels of government, settlement and tax agencies and experienced entrepreneurs to ensure the highest level of programming possible. Most programs are free with the exception of Business Inc., an eight-part series offered twice a year at three branches. The library also offers regular networking meetings for new entrepreneurs and small business owners.

COLLECTIONS

You know we have a wide range of books but we also have e-books, directories, databases and more. All our small business collections and online resources are free, accessible and relevant to starting or growing your small business. Our electronic business resources are available 24/7 via the library's website, allowing you to connect with us anytime, on your own schedule.

Thanks to the late Norman Hinton for his bequest to the Toronto Public Library Foundation in support of small business programs and services at Toronto Public Library.

We have the tools for you to succeed, to create financial well-being and even save you time and money.

EXPERT STAFF

Not sure where to start? Ask our expert staff. Or book a librarian at one of our reference library business departments (Toronto Reference Library and North York Central Library). With extensive, unbiased expertise, library staff connect you with relevant, credible, leading resources, services and collections – for free – helping you save time and money.

SPACES

We also offer free access to computers at every branch as well as software, wifi and meeting spaces. Meet informally at one of our 100 branches across the city or rent a room for a larger meeting. Everything you need to connect, create and build your business. And we're always working to increase public access to technology for research, learning, working and recreation. New computer learning centres with smart board technology are now available at Cedarbrae, Northern District and Brentwood branches; maker spaces are in Toronto Reference Library, Fort York Branch and Scarborough Civic Centre Branch.

Accessibility Services

at Toronto Public Library

We strive to provide all Torontonians with free and equitable access to our collections, services, programs and branches regardless of age, illness or physical disability.

A BRANCH NEAR YOU

With branches all across Toronto, we are always close by. Order materials online and send them to your nearest branch for you or a family member to pick up. Most branches are wheelchair accessible, some have assistive listening devices and all provide reading aids such as hand magnifiers and computer screen magnification software.

To find out which branch has what equipment, go to torontopubliclibrary.ca/accessibility/branchequipment.

To request Sign Language interpretation at library programs, ask at your local branch or call TTY 416-393-7100 to book. A minimum of two weeks notice is required.

CAN'T COME TO US? We'll come to you

With our Bookmobile and Home Library Service. The Bookmobile is our library branch on-the-go, equipped with a wheelchair lift.

For stops, see page 67 or call 416-395-5560.

If you are unable to come to the library for more than three months due to age, illness or disability, Home Library Service can select items and deliver them to your door, for free.

Home Library Service 416-395-5557

Watch a program from home

Many of our library events are now recorded and posted online on YouTube. If your child can't make it into a library for storytime programs, listen to Dial-A-Story or Hear-A-Story at any time.

GET BOOKS, MUSIC AND VIDEOS in regular and alternative formats

Our books, music and movies are also available in special formats such as:

- Large print
- DAISY talking books
- Book kits for all ages (books with CDs)
- Ebooks, e-audiobooks, audiobooks
- Closed Caption & descriptive DVDs
- Digitized collections
- · Online articles and research databases

Check them all out at torontopubliclibrary.ca.

TALK TO US, we're here to help

We can assist you with placing holds on items, finding information, paying fines and registering for programs. If you use a TTY telephone, register your TTY number at your local branch and we will contact you about your Holds and Overdues. You can also pay your fines online at torontopubliclibrary.ca/youraccount.
